Numb. 8601.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday December 27, to Tuesday December 30, 1746.

Munich, December 29, N. S.

THIS Day we have received Intelligence from Italy, of the Surrender of Savona to the Troops of the King of Sardinia, which cannot fail to be attended with great Conſequences with Regard to the War in Provence, as well as the City and Territory of Genoa.

Hague, Jan. 6, N. S. The Advices about General Brown's Army are, that his advanced Guard was at Brignole, and it is ſaid that ſome of his Parties had beaten up ſeveral Poſts of the Enemy within four Leagues of Aix, and that he had ordered the Parliament of that Town not to quit it. The Surrender of Savona is confirmed. Letters from Geneva of the 28th paſt mention, that they had received the News there of the Surrender of Antibes; and from Italy that General Botta was retired to Gavi, and had been attacked at Ponte Decimo by a Body of armed Peaſants; that he had left 600 Sick at Voltagio, and that they knew nothing at his Camp on the 13th, what Fate the three Regiments which he had left at Beſagno had met with. They write from Florence of the 17th paſt, that five Couriers have gone through there in a few Days to Naples, and that they had been followed by Prince Doria, who poſted through without ſtopping any where. Count Waſſenaer is gone back to Breda, whither M. Puyſieux is likewiſe returned.
